

Islam Answers Fard Ayn Pack

Throughout our tradition, knowledge has always been one of the key central focal points for a believer to attain closeness to God. One of the goals of an individual's life is to attain this closeness through loving him. But how can someone love Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala if they do not know him and what he has revealed to us about him? Therefore, sitting in circles of knowledge will equip you with a correct frame set within life to ensure you can navigate on the path towards God in a purified way.

It is Allah who created the seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof. The commandment comes down among them, so that you may know that Allah is able to do all things and that Allah surrounds all things in knowledge.

(Surah Al-Talaq 65:12)

One of the main challenges individuals find is to fit this study around their own timetable. The Islam Answers team have created this bespoke service where your availability will be captured, and we will work to accommodate the best programme for you.

So what's next??

Please fill in the application form to the best of your ability. One of our team members will be in touch to start putting together your bespoke package. The application form can be found on our website.

Group Classes

The bespoke service will also be suited for group classes. Normally these fall within the below categories. If you are applying as an individual the team will work with other individuals to try and create a group.

- Family Group
- University Students' group
- General friends' group

Outside Class Support

Once you have enrolled and are on your journey, the Islam answers team will have a support function outside of classes. The support function will provide the following:

- Any questions outside the class can be asked
- If you feel shy asking questions in class, these can be answered on this platform
- Motivation on maintaining consistency with your studies
- How to make good notes
- General support with your studies.

Class Location

- Classes are normally held around the Newark Road area Luton. However, the teacher is flexible and is open to hold classes at registered students' houses.

Live Streaming Option

- If you have trouble attending the class physically due to your current location or any other reason, then a live stream option is available to students. The students will need a Gmail account and the teacher will send a link prior to the class starting. Once the link is activated the live stream will be available.

- The platform allows the students to ask questions during the live stream.

Fees

Once our admin team have had an initial discussion, your availability and frequency of classes will be reviewed and a package will be sent out formally.

We look forward to receiving your application.
